

It is so apparent that Sinclair's plan of a forced airing of 'Stolen Honor' is a manipulation of the public trust for partisan political gain, and that the FCC should be embarrassed not to take immediate and severe action to prevent this illegal corporate media offensive.

As the country continues to polarize itself into a 50/50 standstill at every turn, the only hope left is for singular cases of clear thinking, unbiased integrity and a genuine interest in maintaining the possibility of far-sighted democratic justice.

Don't let America down by turning a blind eye to the illegal manipulations of a few wealthy powerful interests and their lawyers.
